IASC Youth of the Year

The Snowmobiler YOUTH of the Year award recognizes an IASC member for his or her individual contributions to the sport.

The eligibility requirements for this award include the following:

- 21 years old or younger as of the date of nomination
- Snowmobilers that have been active in promoting organized snowmobiling and have participated in club, region, and or statewide activities.
- Individuals and/or snowmobile organizations can make these nominations. Self-nomination is also permitted.
- All nominations should include the nominee's full name, address, a description of the nominee and their contributions to snowmobiling, as well as an explanation as to why these contributions are particularly noteworthy.

Nominations can be based on projects and activities such as state, region, and local club activities, charitable efforts, safety programs, special projects, school initiatives, and any other unique efforts.

The IASC Snowmobiler YOUTH of the Year will be selected at the annual IASC meeting each November. The IASC Snowmobiler Youth of the Year will be honored with a trophy at the annual IASC Convention dinner in November for which he or she is expected to attend.
